St. Jude Clinic at Huntsville Hospital for Women & Children

Kids in north Alabama now have access right here in Huntsville to the resources of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Certain cancers and blood disorders are being treated at the new St. Jude Clinic at Huntsville Hospital for Women & Children. The outpatient clinic is led by Huntsville Hospital pediatric hematologist/oncologist Dr. Lucille Ferrante.

If you would like more information call us, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday at (256) 265-JUDE or visit our website.
